The Women's Center to Host "An Evening in Paris"

WAUKESHA, WI – Enjoy "An Evening in Paris" when The Women's Center hosts its Summer Evening event on Saturday, August 9, 2014 at Chenequa Country Club in Hartland (6250 North Hwy. 83, Hartland, WI 53029). Summer Evening serves to raise funds and awareness of The Women's Center's free programs and services that help women and children heal and break the cycle of violence and to educate the community on the effects of domestic and sexual violence.

Summer Evening is co-chaired by Nancy Lindenberg and Alison Holub. The event runs from 6:00 pm – 10:30 pm and will include both silent and live auctions, heavy hors d'oeuvres, live music and a 50/50 raffle. The live auction will be presented by Steve "The Homer" True from ESPN radio. Guests can participate in "Champagne on the Rocks" for a chance to win a diamond pendant necklace donated by William Nordstrom Jewelers. Tickets for this cocktail attire event are $150 each and can be purchased by calling 262.522.3805 or online at www.twcwaukesha.org. Valet parking will be provided.

About The Women's Center

Founded in 1977, The Women's Center is a non-profit human service agency that provides a wide range of free and comprehensive services designed to address the issues of domestic violence, sexual assault and abuse. These services include emergency shelter for abused women and their children, transitional living, 24-hour Hotline, group and individual counseling, onsite childcare, child abuse prevention programming, legal advocacy and employment counseling. The Center also provides Hispanic outreach, community education and violence prevention programs, information and referral services. In 2013, The Women's Center served over 9,000 individuals.
