

Understanding the Role of Family Court Services

Wednesday, May 29th
5:30 – 7: 00pm

This is an informational workshop designed for survivors of intimate partner violence.

Family Court Services (FCS) provides Waukesha County residents with mediation and evaluation services to help resolve legal custody and physical placement disputes in family court actions. A social worker from FCS will be available to discuss these services.

Questions regarding specific situations will be collected when participants sign up for the workshop.
