

Image #1 → healthy boundary, set lines, but also room for things we cannot control

Image #2 → no boundaries, allows for anything and everyone

Image #3 → set boundaries, but do not stick to them – being persuaded into doing something you might have said no to originally

Image #4 → walls, puts us in a bubble, unable to handle when situations arise that are out of our control, does not allow us to build healthy relationships